Dear Vice Presidents

After the first third of the season it looks like things are now beginning to pick up. The run of bad results has been mainly due to injuries and other unavailabilities. Players are now beginning to come back and Lee has the 'pain' of having to choose from more than 15 players every week. Our bad result against Winscombe was caused by going down there with thirteen players. Last weeks win against Blagdon, however, was very hard fought and well deserved.

Results so far are as follows:

Date	Opponent	Venue	For	Against
01/09	Warminster	H	Cancelled
09/09	Castle Cary	A	19	20
15/09	Colerne	A	Cancelled
22/09	Old Edwardians	H	10	51
29/09	Malmsbury	H	29	36
06/10	Bristol Ba Ba's	A	3	60
13/10	Wincanton	H	18	29
20/10	No game	-	-	-
27/10	Cheddar	H	48	12
03/11	Combe Down II	H	10	33
10/11	Winscombe	A	5	59
17/11	Blagdon	H	16	10

Hopefully you have received a letter from Mike York detailing the VP day on 8th December. It will be great to see you there. You will have noted from his letter that the committee is making a concerted effort to collect bits of memorabilia, photos and plaques etc. so that we can chronicle the history of the club. If you have anything that you are prepared to part with, please bring it with you on the day. If you can't make it, please make the effort to get it to the club.

Enclosed are this year's raffle tickets. There are only eleven books so please try to sell them all. You will note that they are due back by the 8th December, so the VP day will be an ideal opportunity. If you need to post them, please send to:
